ABOUT REGISTRATION - Page 1 of 2:

Some of our goals, as a non-profit organization, is to preserve our American Pioneer family history, the history of our state of North Dakota, and to keep our fees family and group friendly, as low as possible.

Our year 2023 wagon train is our 54th Anniversary!

- Registration will be limited to 120 wagon passenger seats. Registration for seating will close when the 120th wagon passenger registration is received.
- Acceptance will be on first come, first serve basis, by earliest Post Office postmark or time of receipt of web site registration. You can register on line with Visa or Mastercard payment in our Wagon Train Store.
- To register for the wagon train by mail, send completed registration form with full payment of fees to the registrar.
- Any registration over 120 wagon seating count, may be turned down and/or placed on a waiting list in chronological order, pending cancellations/openings received. Those placed on the waiting list will be notified by the Registrar.

ABOUT REGISTRATION - Page 2:

- Final In-Camp Registration will take place on Sunday, June 25th from 2-5 P.M., at the Fort Seward Park in Jamestown, North Dakota.
- All participants and staff will be required to sign a release form at that time in order to participate with the wagon train.
- The park is located on the northwest corner of the city. Take Highway 281 north through Jamestown. The park is on the crest of the hill overlooking the city. The address is 1100 5th Street Northwest (look for signs).
- Be sure to visit the Fort Seward Interpretive Center for interesting history on the Fort Seward Park.
- Orientation will take place on Sunday, June 25th at approximately 8:00 P.M., at the Fort Seward Park. Activities will be designed to get acquainted, make staff introductions, discuss guidelines and safety, answer your questions. Please attend this meeting.
- On Monday, June 26th, we will rise, eat, pack and move out on the trail.
- During the week we will be traveling by wagon train, each evening will be a different campsite.
- On Saturday, July 1st, we make our finale mileage. After which we will have a Noon lunch together. If needed, buses will bring participants back to Jamestown, North Dakota.
- We say our good-byes to all our new friends prior to our departures. Covered wagons, teams of horses and equipment are loaded and returned to their homes to wait until next year!
